

Butterfly on a rock with grass

table decoration
big arzanto & brass

The charm of nature is revealed into the most surprising forms. Just like the butterfly with its lively colors and aerial form. This is how exactly the artist wanted to attribute it, that's why he kept its light flying and combined it with the land- a little grass and a rock. A beautiful decorative item transformed into a gesture of appreciation or love between two people.
